

How big can you dream?

We all have different things we dream of doing. Some are things we can try now (like building a tall tower out of blocks) and some are things we imagine for the future (like becoming an astronaut).

Draw a picture of something you dream of doing.